

PROJECT SINGLE MOMS

It's About a Hand Up, Not a Hand Out

WHY JOIN THE PROJECT SINGLE MOMS MOVEMENT? READ WHAT PROJECT SINGLE MOM AMBASSADORS ARE SAYING...

It was overwhelmingly wonderful to see and know that I am not alone in the world with what I have to struggle with. It was also wonderful to know that being a single mom doesn't have to be a pity party. That's one party I don't want to attend. PSM is definitely a support system that helps to strengthen and encourage those of us who are single moms. It is also an avenue to help strengthen us individually and to empower us to do better in life and make a difference for our daughters.

I had the time of my life at the single mom's event and I knew when I stepped in that room filled with beautiful and spiritual women that I was in for something amazing. All the women there had something to offer or shared a similar story. I cried numerous times because I was touched to know that someone to the left or right of me felt the way I felt on my bad days. The knowledge that I gained from that event will always be with me and I hope to be connected with more of the moms because we all need someone to talk to for a boost of encouragement. Sometimes all we need is somebody to say job well done or I love you sister.

I take being called a Project Single Moms ambassador very seriously and I know that we are going to reach higher heights than we can ever imagine, because the word says that "Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us".... So there it is, let's reach for heaven.

It can't be said enough that PSM is a great thing and I am proud to be an ambassador. The colors were beautiful, the people were beautiful and the fellowship was beautiful. I look forward to our next gathering.
